

Audubon South Carolina's "Friends of a Feather"

Audubon South Carolina's "Friends of a Feather" was created to establish and recognize a corps of individuals who have a special interest in the mission and programs of Audubon South Carolina and who provide a financial investment in Audubon South Carolina of at least $1,000.

- Members of "Friends of a Feather" will receive complimentary entry to Francis Beidler Forest and Silver Bluff Audubon Centers for one year.
- Two special events, selected by "Friends of a Feather" members from options presented by Audubon South Carolina, will be available only to this membership.
- Members will receive advance notice of special events open to the public, with the opportunity to purchase reservations before the general public.
- Recognition of "Friends of a Feather" Members will be made in the Audubon South Carolina newsletter and on the Audubon South Carolina website.

Suggestions made for consideration as "Friends of a Feather" events include:

- A wildlife photography presentation by an award-winning nature photographer . . .
- An early-morning guided birdwalk followed by breakfast . . .
- A "Friends of a Feather" canoe & kayak trip on Goodson Lake . . .
- . . . or new suggestions from you:
- _____
- _____
- _____

Thank you for caring about and supporting the protection of habitat in South Carolina for birds and other wildlife!

Nancyjean Nettles

Nancyjean D. Nettles
nnettl@audubon.org